A Letter From Jen, Library Director

As we head into this time of thanksgiving and I reflect on the success of our centennial celebration and the many exciting changes happening at the library, I would like to personally thank all of those who make Manlius Library such a wonderful part of the community.

Thank you to all of our patrons who make each day fun and interesting. You are why we are here. Your excitement over a new book, your participation in our events, your fascinating questions, your smiles and conversations make every day a good day. Your love for your library is evident.

Thank you to the staff members who meet each new challenge and every patron with a smile. Your professionalism, willingness to lend a hand or try something new, and sense of teamwork provide our patrons with continuous outstanding service. I am inspired by your knowledge, your passion and dedication to serving our patrons, your willingness to help others, and your belief in the importance of our mission. I could never do this without your support.

Thank you to all those in the community that support the library with their time, treasures, and talents. Whether making a monetary donation, volunteering your time, or making contributions to our book sale, your support is critical to our continuing operation.

Thank you to the Manlius area businesses and organizations who continue to support the library. We are proud to share this community with you.

Thank you to the trustees who recognize the value of the library within our community. Your time, talents, and advocacy help make the library successful.

Thank you to those legislators who recognize the value of public libraries. Your advocacy and votes for continued library funding make it possible for us to continue to serve.

Thank you to anyone I may have forgotten who is a part of the extended Manlius Library family.

I am proud to be a part of the library and am immensely thankful for all of you.
